A: Mum, can you give me a lift?

B: Are you training today?

A: Yes, but in the evening. Now I'm going to meet Mr Brown at school.

B: On Saturday?

A: Yes, he promised to explain me how to read the notes, so I'll be able to play the song in the academy organised by our English teacher.

B: OK. Don't forget your guitar.

1.2.

A: Can I help you?

B: Hello. I'm looking for some pencils and a sketchbook.

A: Of course. You can find in the second aisle.

B: Oh, I've been there already, but I haven't found B6 pencils.

A: Yes, they are out of stock.

B: OK, so I'll only take a sketchbook.

A: How about a pencil case? They are on sale.

B: Wow, what a bargain! But I've already had a new one.

Hi Laura. I'm organising poetry reading this Friday. I'd be grateful if you could take care of the lights. Let me know if you can.

2.1. My favourite cooking programme is 'In Our Kitchen.' In this programme children cook with their parents and invite two other couples to visit them. Then the contestants give points for the food. The couple with the highest score wins a trip to the most famous London restaurant.

2.2. I love watching 'Chefs in Action.' This is a very professional programme which teaches a lot of tricks. Most famous chefs compete for the statue and a possibility to organise dinner for the Royal Family.

2.3. Every Sunday I watch with my Family 'No Adults Allowed.' It's great to see how my peers deal with complicated dishes. I admire their abilities. Every time I see something nice, I try to do it by myself later on. It's a great fun.

2.4. I've always had a sweet tooth and 'Sweet Love' is something I can't miss. All the dishes prepared in this programme look really tasty. I also love non-standard combinations like chilli and chocolate. It's great. I'd love to taste what they cook.

A: I really love our canteen.

B: It's all right, but today it's Friday and they don't serve beef.

A: Yes, but as usually you've got two main dishes to choose from. I'll take tuna salad.

B: I hate fish. I'll go for pasta.

A: OK, but hurry up. We've got 15 minutes left. Remember that our lunch breaks is only half an hour long.

B: Don't worry. We'll manage. But, oh no!

A: What's wrong?

B: All two person tables are taken.

A: So today we'll eat with Tom, Jim and Kate. They have two seats free. Come on!

ZADANIE 4.

4.1. Do you fancy an apple pie?

4.2. Atchoo! (ktoś kicha)

4.3. I'm fed up with this task.

4.4. We're going on a trip to the museum next Friday.
